This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhou, and have been cured be Dr. Maggiel's Pills. WILSON HARVEY, New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street. New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a men employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and we exused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following sertificate was riven to me by him about eight weeks after the accident:

New York

My name is Jacob Hardy: I am an iron founder; I was hadly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed but I had a running sore on my ler that would not heal; I tried Magniel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any heavy can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, Second Avanue.

J. HARDY.
